

“Take Me Out to the Ballgame”

Saturday May 12, 2018 7:05 p.m.

Families from Resurrection Regional School are invited to Phanatic About Reading Night with the Phillies. This year the Phillies are playing Mr. Bellantoni’s favorite team, the New York Mets.

All children who attend will receive the latest Philly Phanatic book.

This event is a great way to celebrate children’s literacy while cheering on the Phillies (or the Mets).

This is not a school sponsored event; you must provide your own transportation. Resurrection families will be seated in Section 416 (first base side) and will receive a discounted ticket rate. All children must have adult supervision.

The tickets are $20. (Children 2 and under do not need tickets)

If you would like to go to the game, please indicate below the number of tickets that you want to buy and send in cash or a check made out to *The Phillies.

(Attn: Mrs. Gaynor) kgaynor@resurrectschool.org

Full payment is due by Friday April 13. Hope you can join us!!!
